Ethics for Breeders Listed

I am familiar with my breed standard and breed only those healthy specimens, which conform to it. I will keep accurate records (breeding, immunization, worming, etc.) and furnish each buyer with a three-generation pedigree and signed registration form or transfer form unless reasons for not providing such papers are clearly stated in the sales contract. I will apprise potential buyers of the growth potential and breed peculiarities to insure that the placement of the dog is mutually satisfactory. I will maintain the best possible standards of health and care to insure that I will not knowingly sell any unhealthy or diseased animal. I will provide the buyer with complete instructions for proper care and be sure they understand the responsibilities that go with all aspects of dog ownership (spay/neutering companion animals, proper education prior to breeding show prospects and obedience training to the point of being a good canine companion)
